

UNDERSTANDING

MR. MAGNETIC

The newest album from Theron Brown, Mr. Magnetic, is more than an album - It is a decade's dream in real form. Utilizing spacial audio, Mr. Magnetic gives the unique opportunity to redefine jazz tradition, and put Akron, Ohio in the national spotlight for immersive sound.

Working alongside Director of Sound Recording Technology and Assistant Professor of Music at Stephen F. Austin State University (SFA) James Adams, Mr. Magnetic came to life at the Dolby Atmos Studio - One of the only university funded, fully immersive Dolby-Atmos certified studios in the country.

Mr. Magnetic is an album designed to explore how jazz can evolve in immersive audio spaces. This is an opportunity to blend timeless tradition with groundbreaking technology, pushing the boundaries of how music is created and experienced. Working alongside world-class musicians, Theron Brown brings a brand new perspective to the world of jazz.

ALBUM DEBUT

On Saturday, November 8th, 2025, Theron and his amazing band will debut the album LIVE for the first time ever at House Three Thirty in Akron, Ohio. To accompany the performance, visionary Derek Wayne Johnson will debut his documentary, captured during the making of the album. This event is a true opportunity to witness history in the Akron Arts & Music space.
